Personal News

Donna Saye's daughter, Emily, tried out for a new competitive cheerleading team made up of girls in grades 8-12 from several school districts in Southeast Georgia including Statesboro. There were 38 girls who tried out and 25 were chosen. Emily was one of those 25 who made the team. The team is called "Cheer South" and will compete nationally. Their first competition will be held in Myrtle Beach, SC. It's an opportunity for the girls to be seen by scouts from various colleges and universities, and if they are good enough, they will have the opportunity to compete on TV sometime next year.

Rose Mae Bogan and Robert Clifton Millikan invite you to their wedding on Saturday, January 2, 1999 at 10:30AM at the First United Methodist Church here in Statesboro. A brunch will follow. Acknowledgement of your planned attendance would be appreciated.
